Volunteer (mentor)

An adult who wants to help at a dojo. Becoming a mentor is a one-time, account-level approval: an application plus a valid Belgian background check. After that they can join any dojo's team and help run its sessions.

Screenshots taken on the development site (seeded demo data) as guardian-11 / guardian-2 / guardian-3 (applicants) and mentor-51-1 (mentor at Dojo Westerlo), 17 October 2026.

The journey

- Apply to be a mentor (or to start a dojo)
- Upload the background check when asked
- Wait for the reviewers' decision
- Work in the dojo's management area: sessions and attendance
- Award belts and badges, manage the team, join other dojos

Step 1

Volunteer with us

The sign-up page explains the ways in: a family account, helping at a dojo as a mentor, or starting a dojo as a champion. Volunteers use a normal account first.

`/register/`

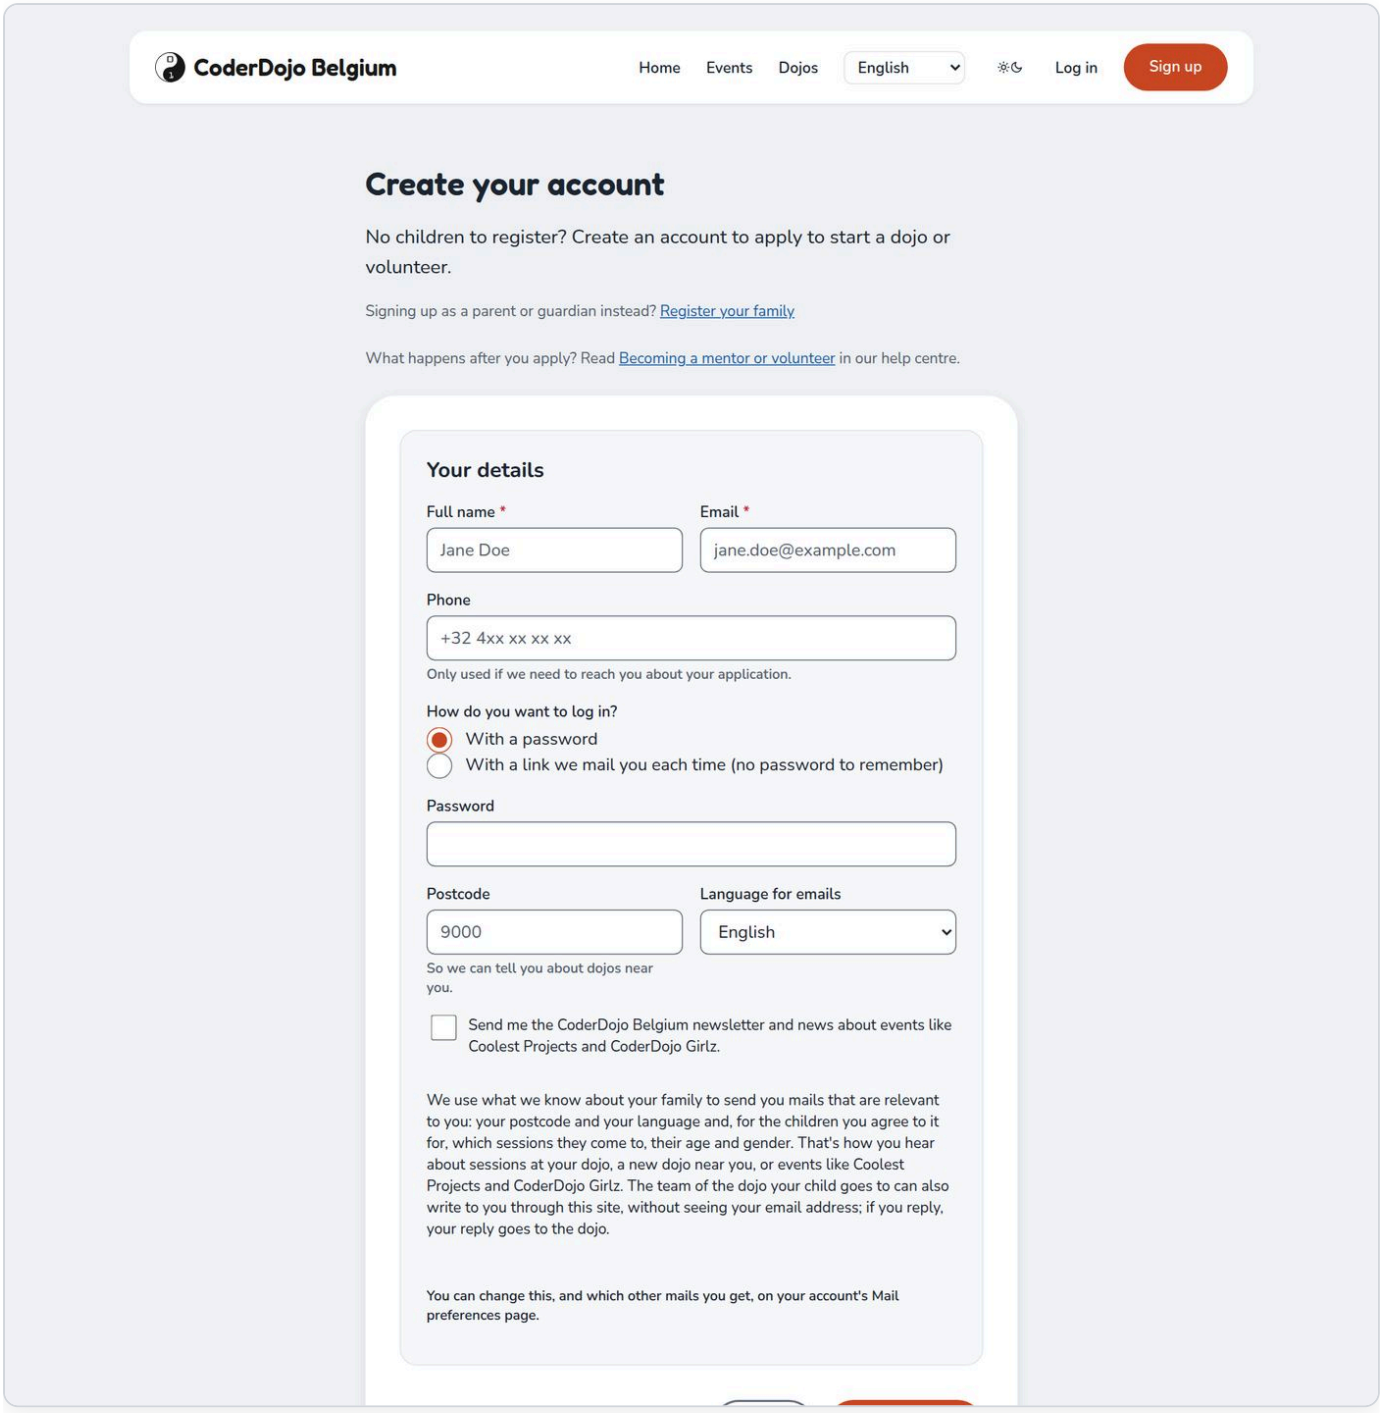

Step 2

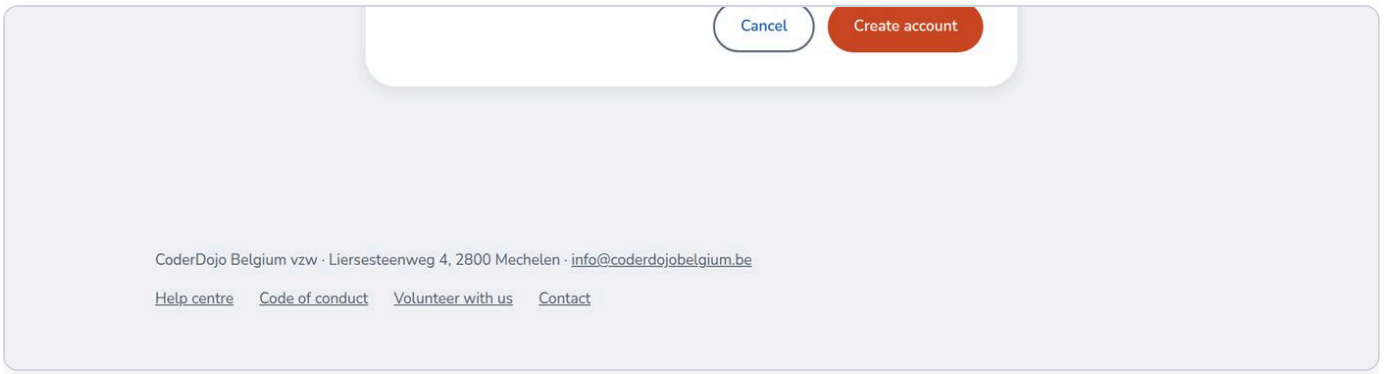

An account without children

Someone with no children to register gets a short sign-up of their own: their details and how they log in, nothing about children. Once the account exists they go straight on to the application they picked.

`/register/individual/?next=/register/helper/`

Step 2 An account without children (continued)

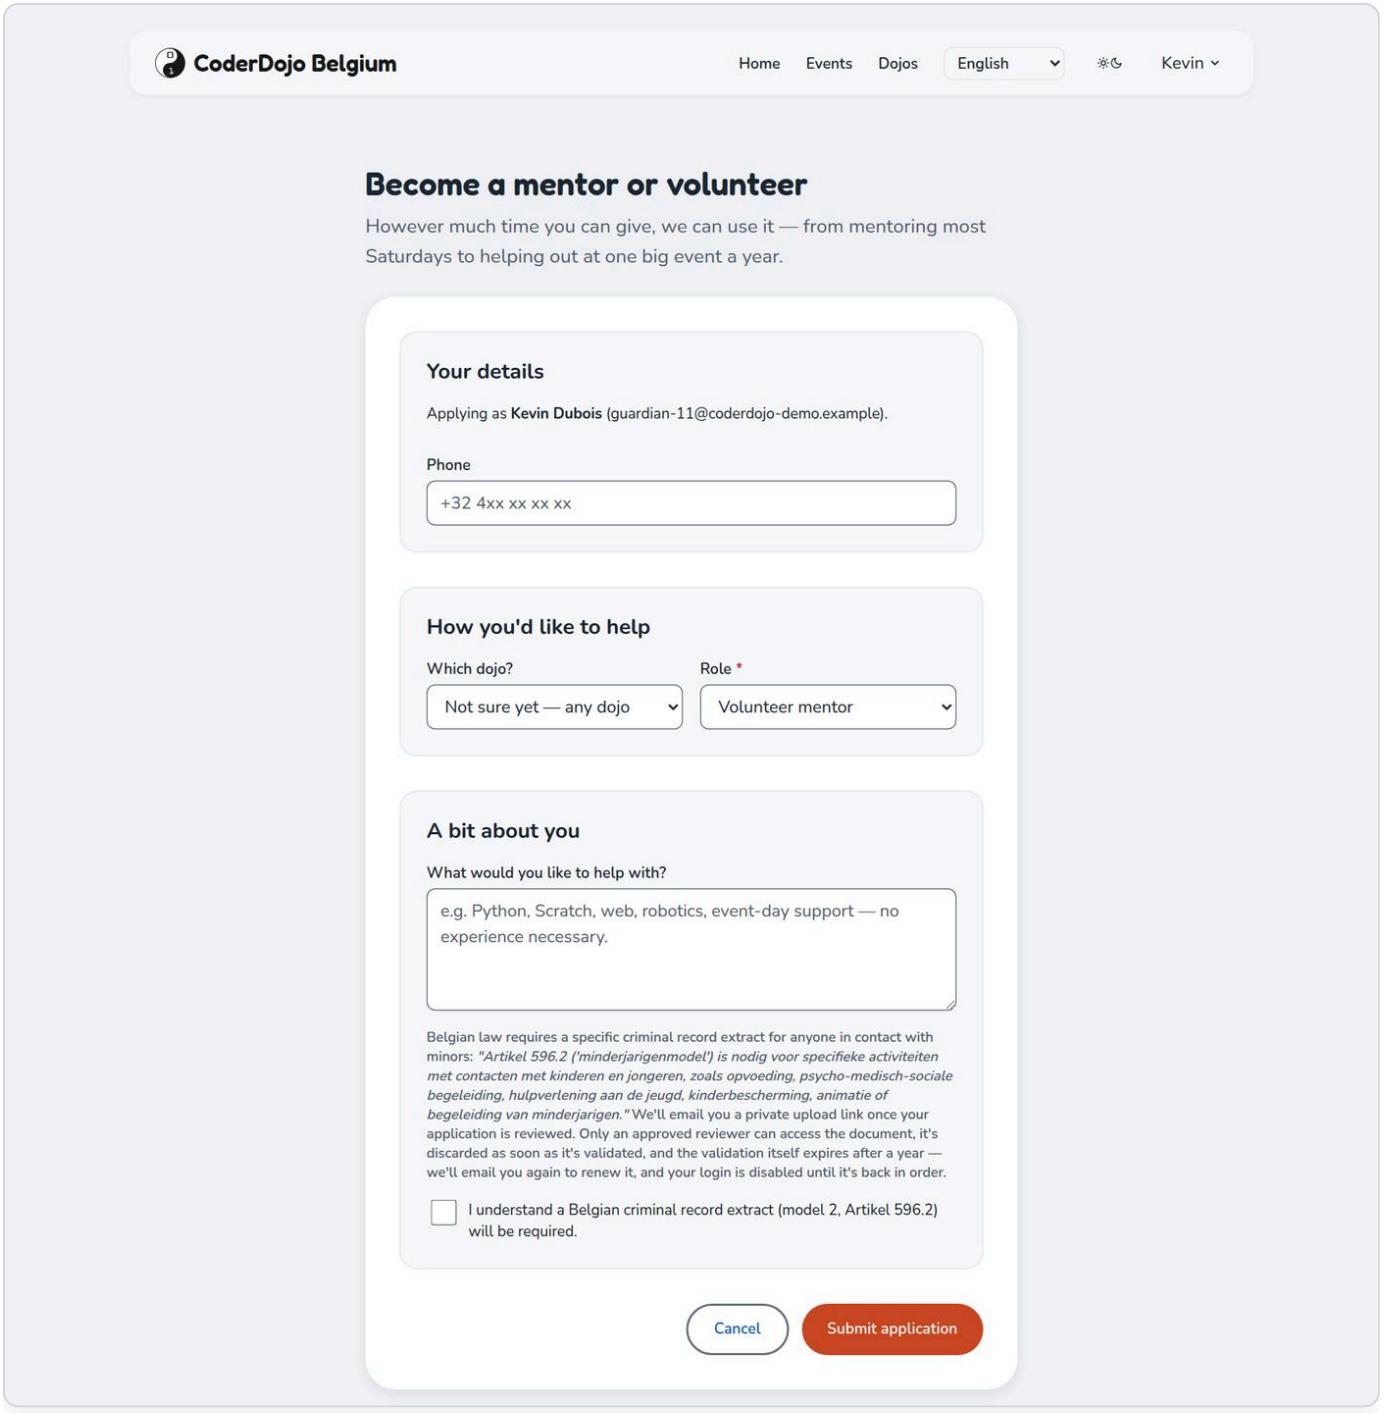

Step 3

Apply to become a mentor

Logged in, any adult can apply to become a mentor: optionally naming a dojo, their skills and availability, and agreeing to the background check. Mentor approval is once per account, not per dojo.

`/register/helper/`

Step 3 Apply to become a mentor (continued)

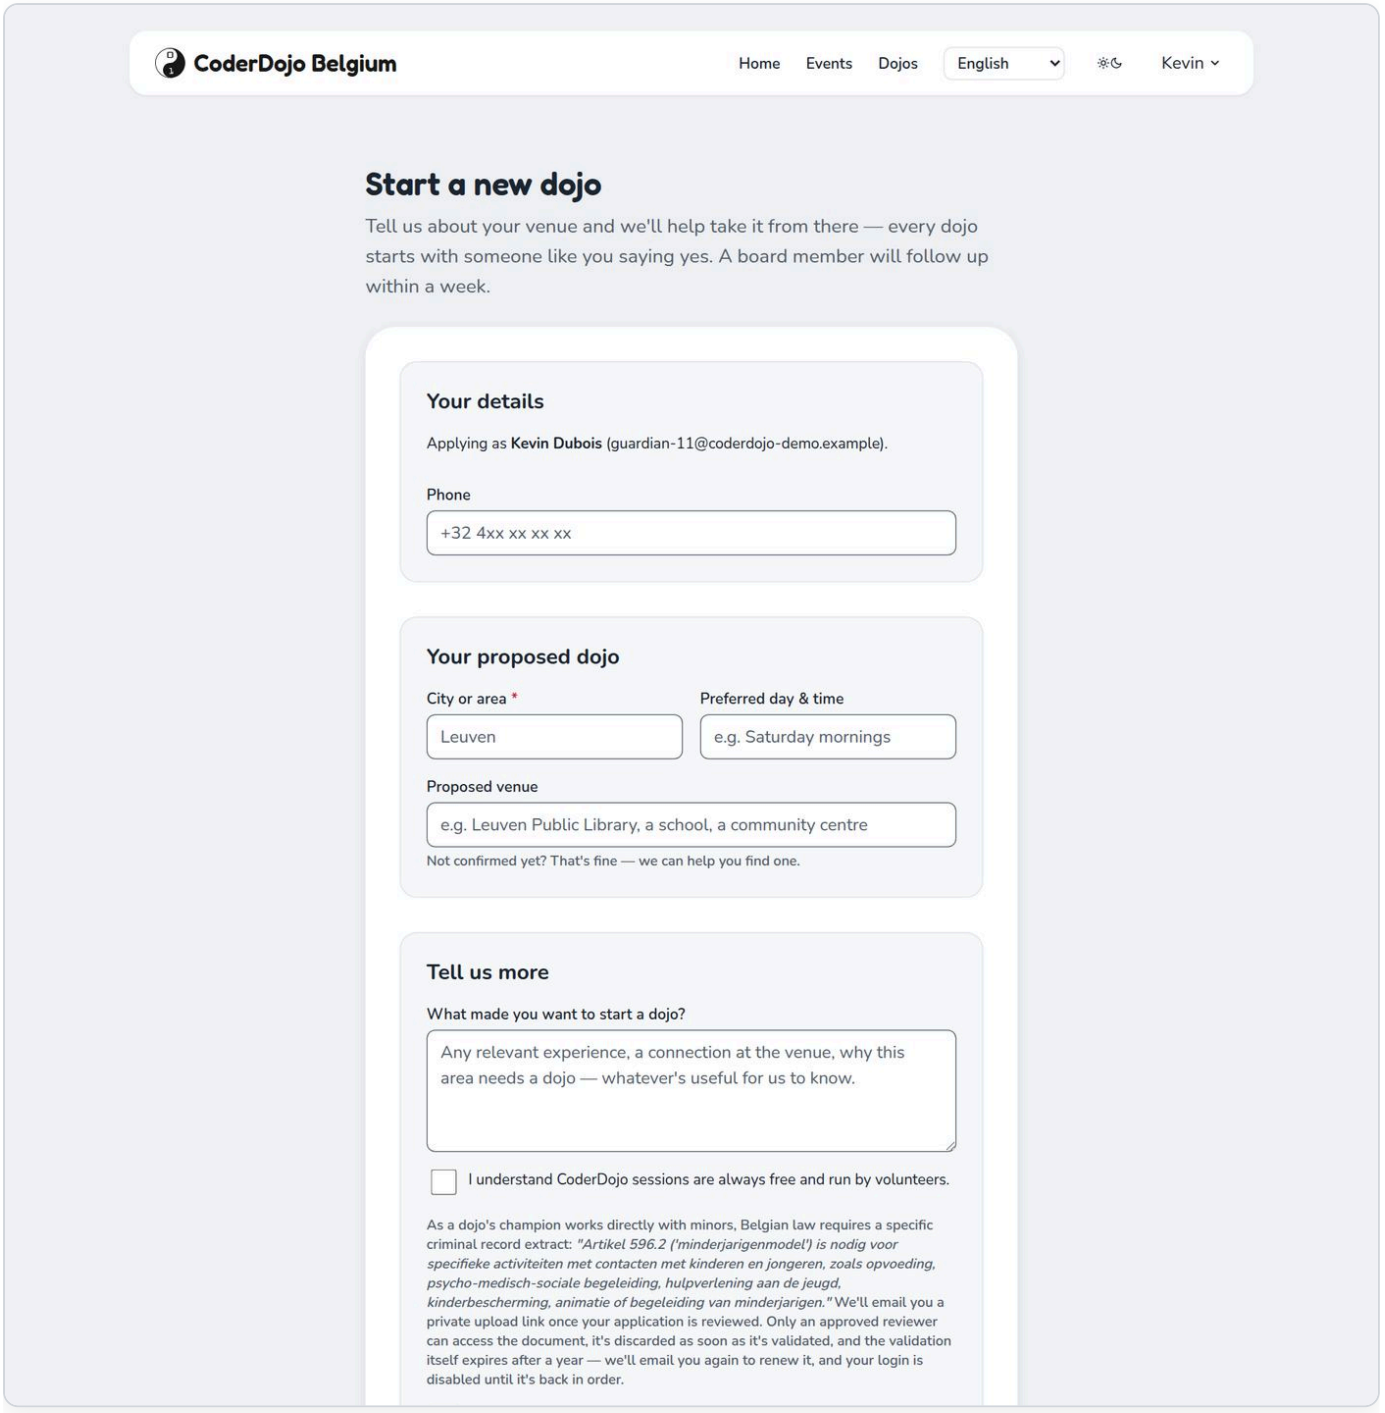

Step 4

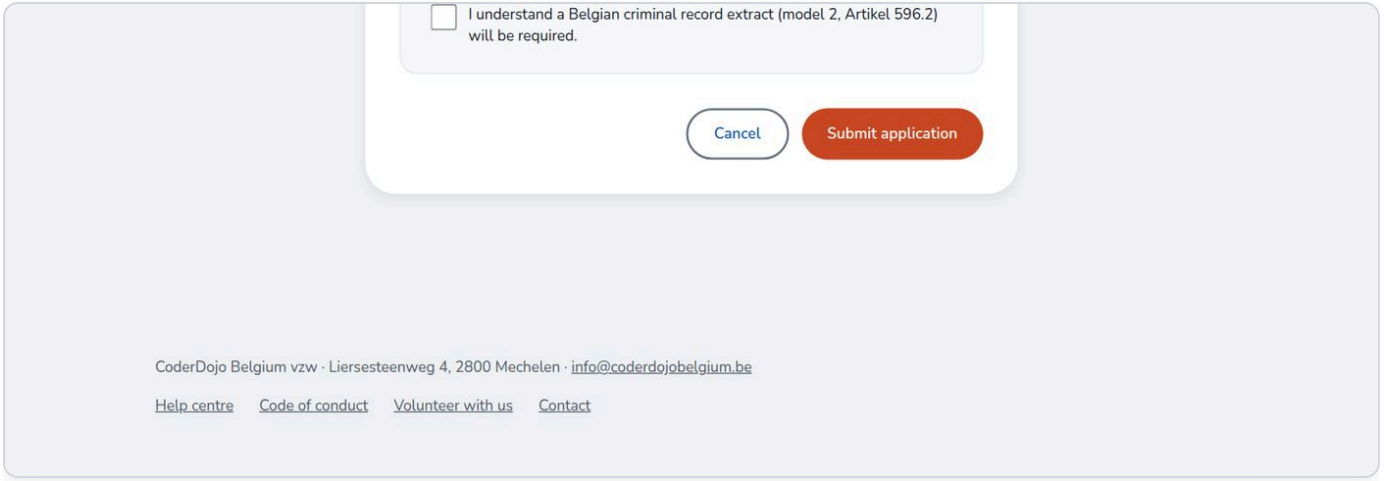

Or apply to start a dojo

Starting a dojo is the champion application: area, proposed venue and schedule. An approved champion creates their dojo themselves.

`/register/dojo/`

Step 4 Or apply to start a dojo (continued)

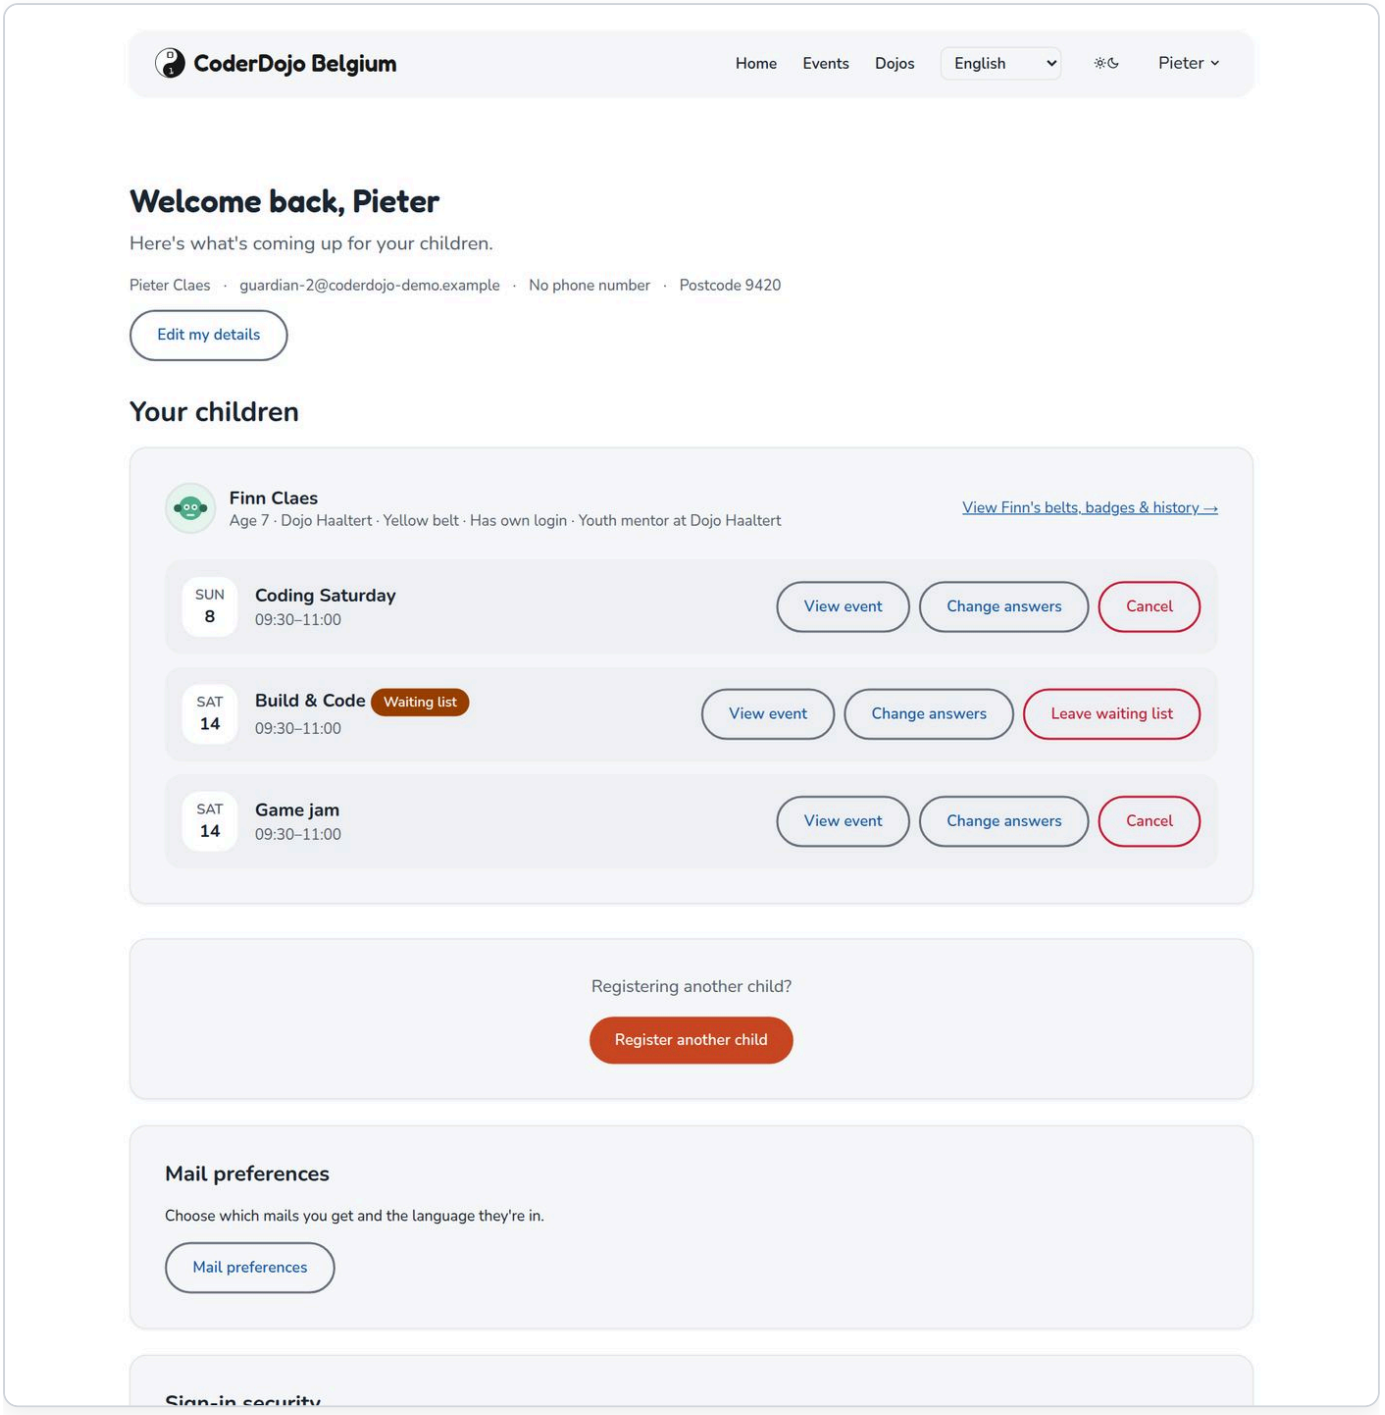

Step 5

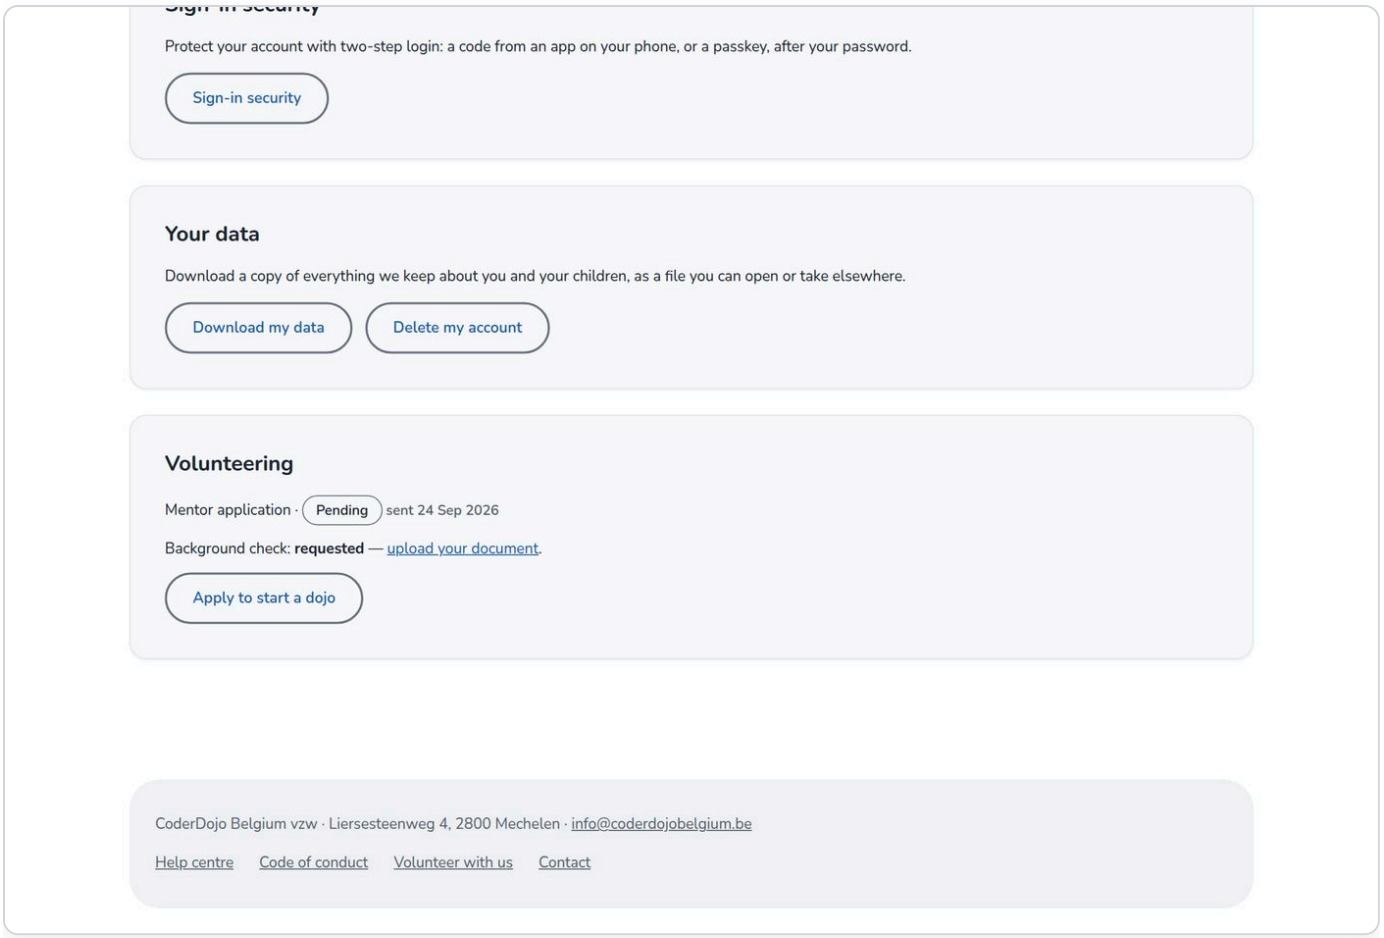

The background check is requested

After the application, a reviewer asks for the Belgian extract from the criminal record (model 2). The account page and a mailed link both lead to the upload.

`/account/`

Step 5 The background check is requested (continued)

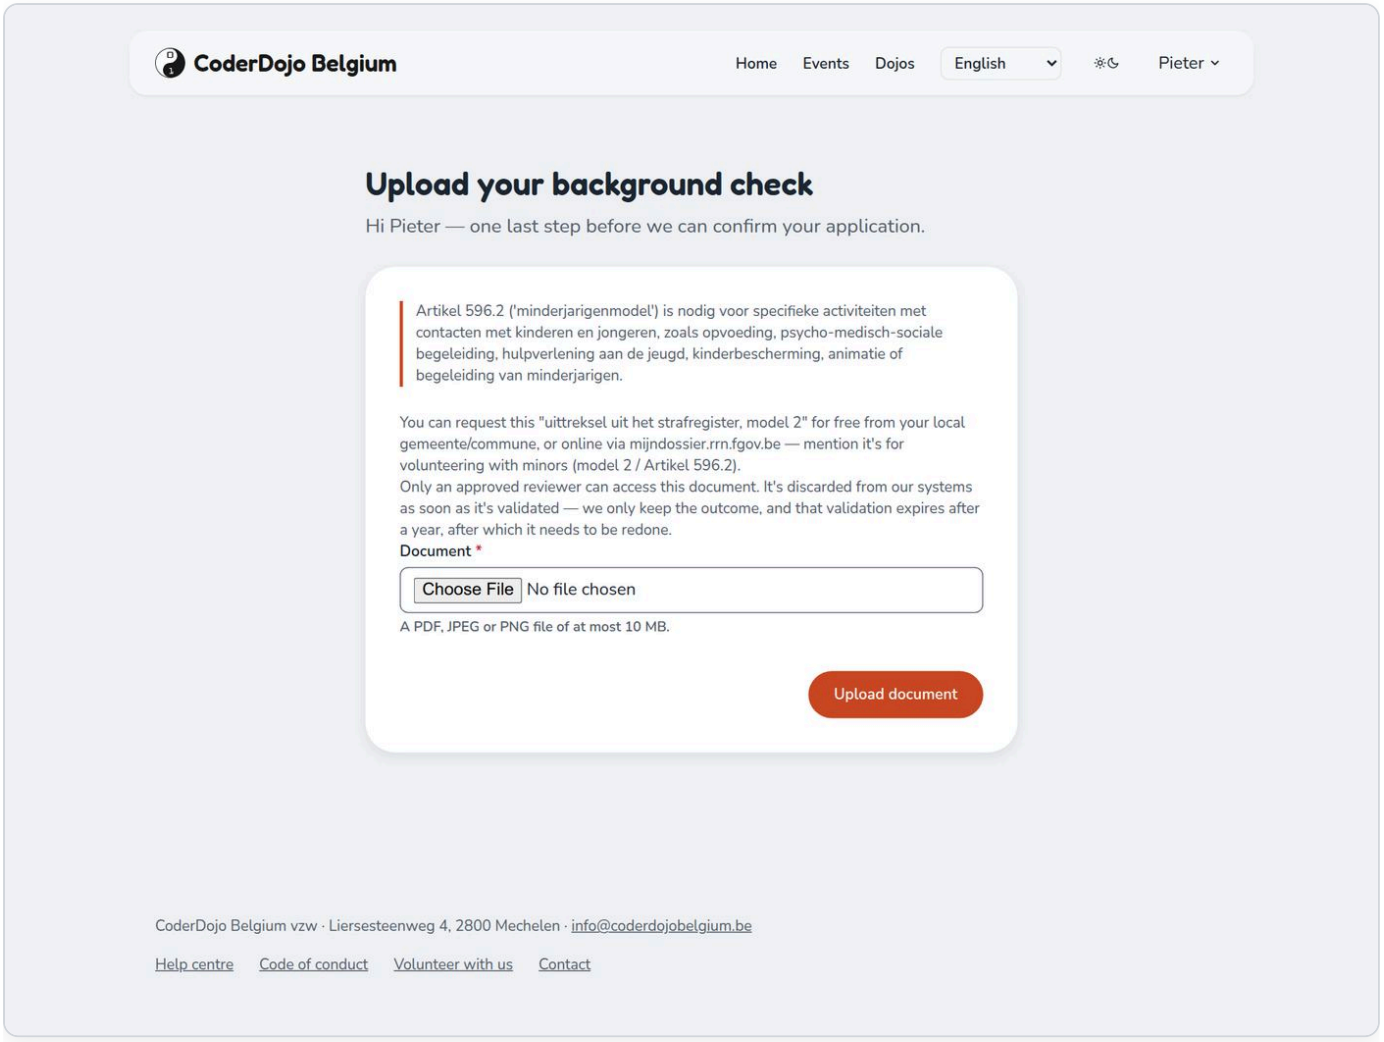

Step 6

Uploading the document

The document is stored privately (no public URL), seen only by the reviewers, and deleted as soon as they decide: only the decision is kept.

`/account/background-check/renew/`

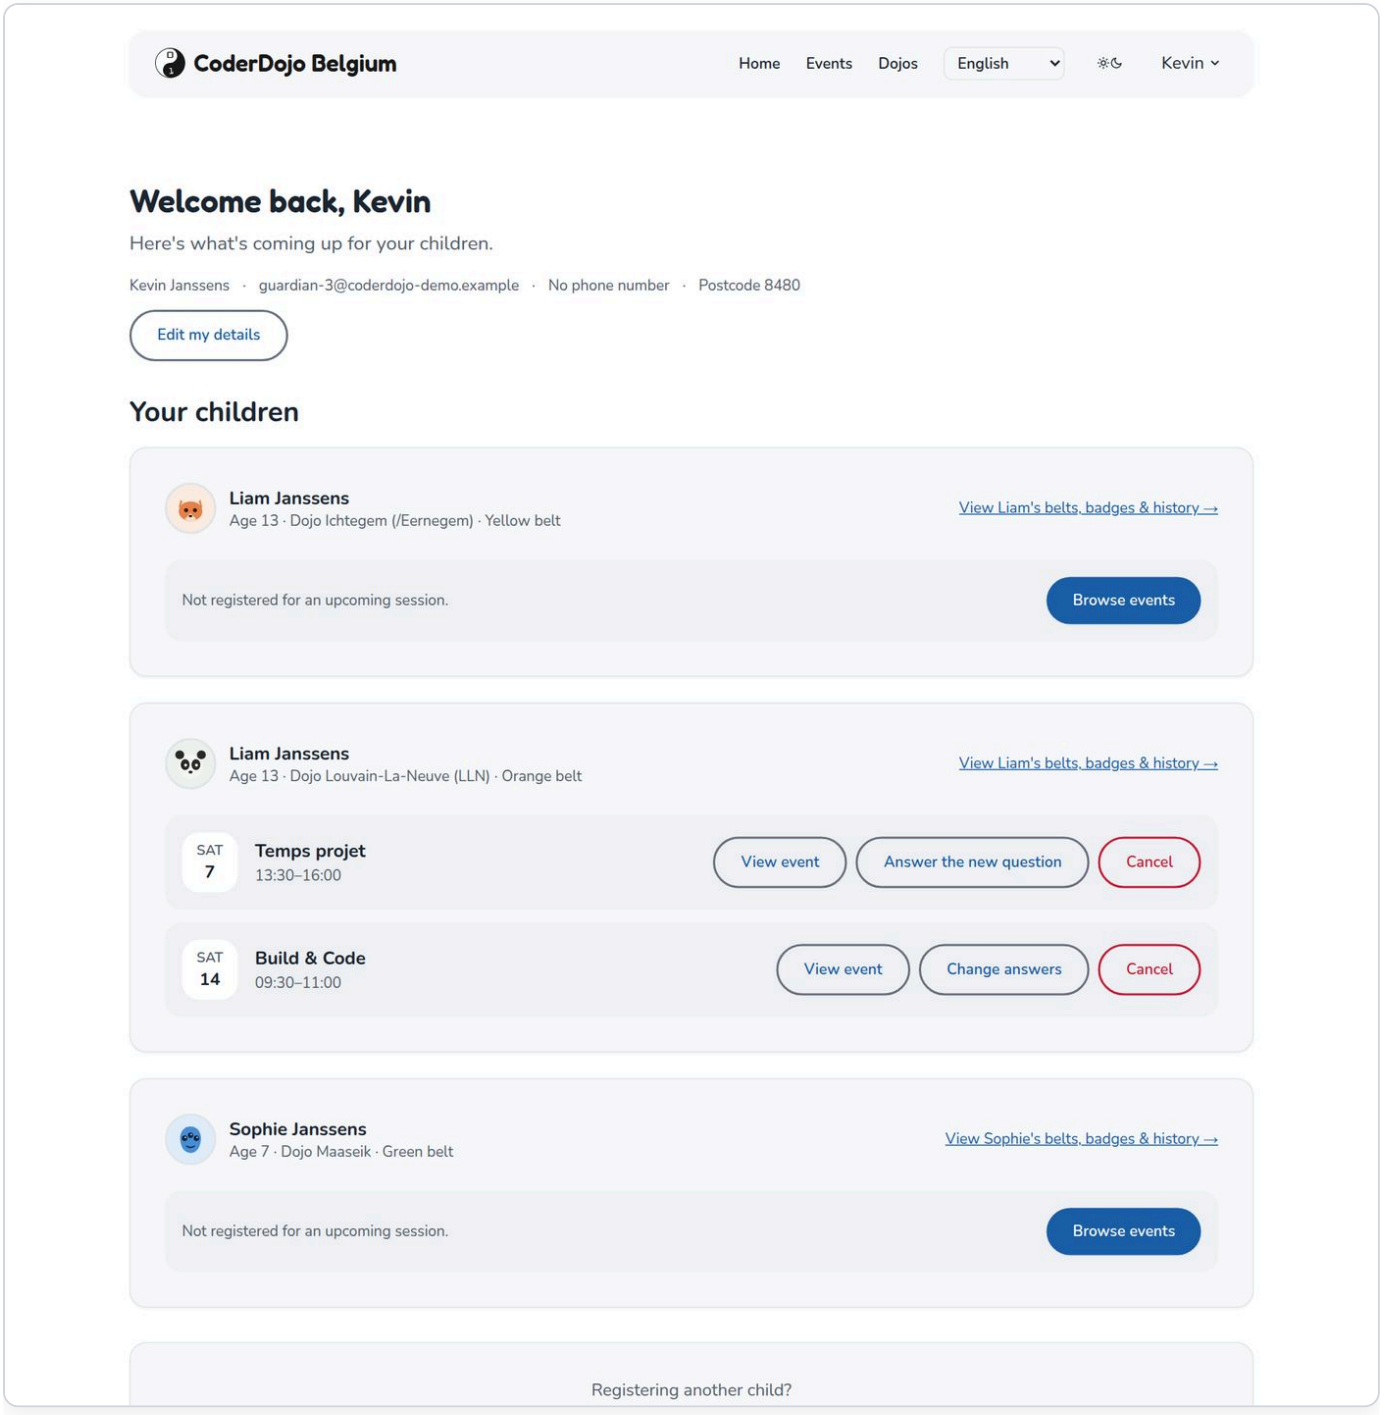

Step 7

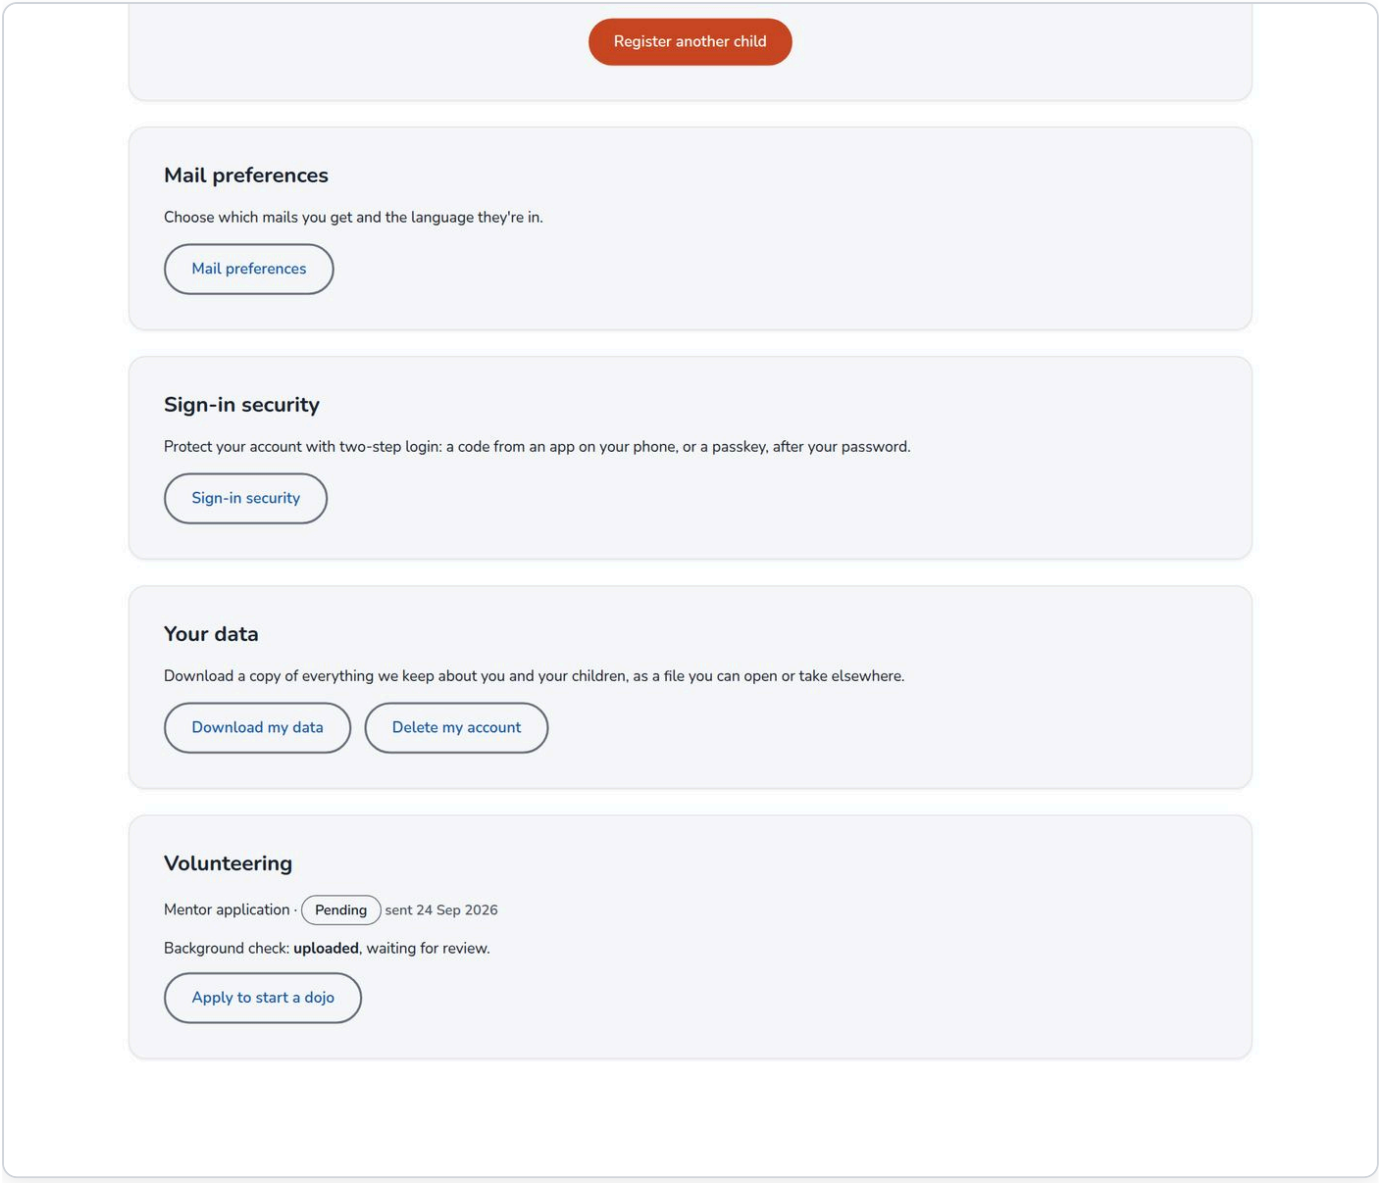

Waiting for review

Once uploaded, the account shows the check is waiting for a reviewer. Reviewers get a daily mail while documents wait.

`/account/`

Step 7 Waiting for review (continued)

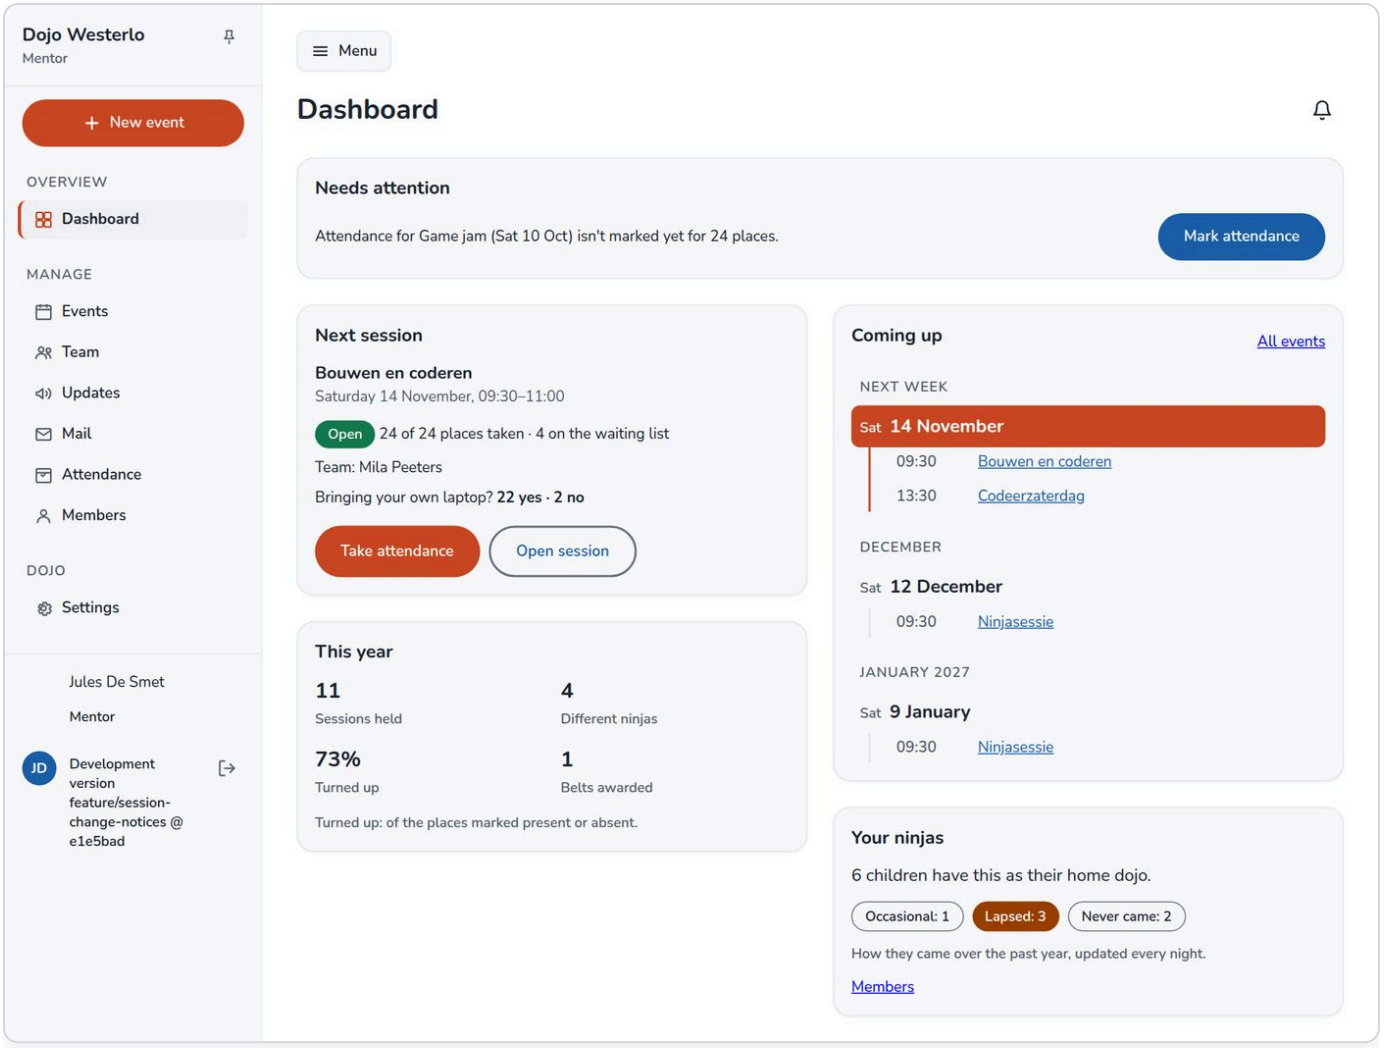

Step 8

An approved mentor logs in

Once approved and on a dojo's team, logging in goes straight to the dojo's management area. The switcher at the top of the sidebar lists every dojo they help at.

`/dojos/51/dashboard/`

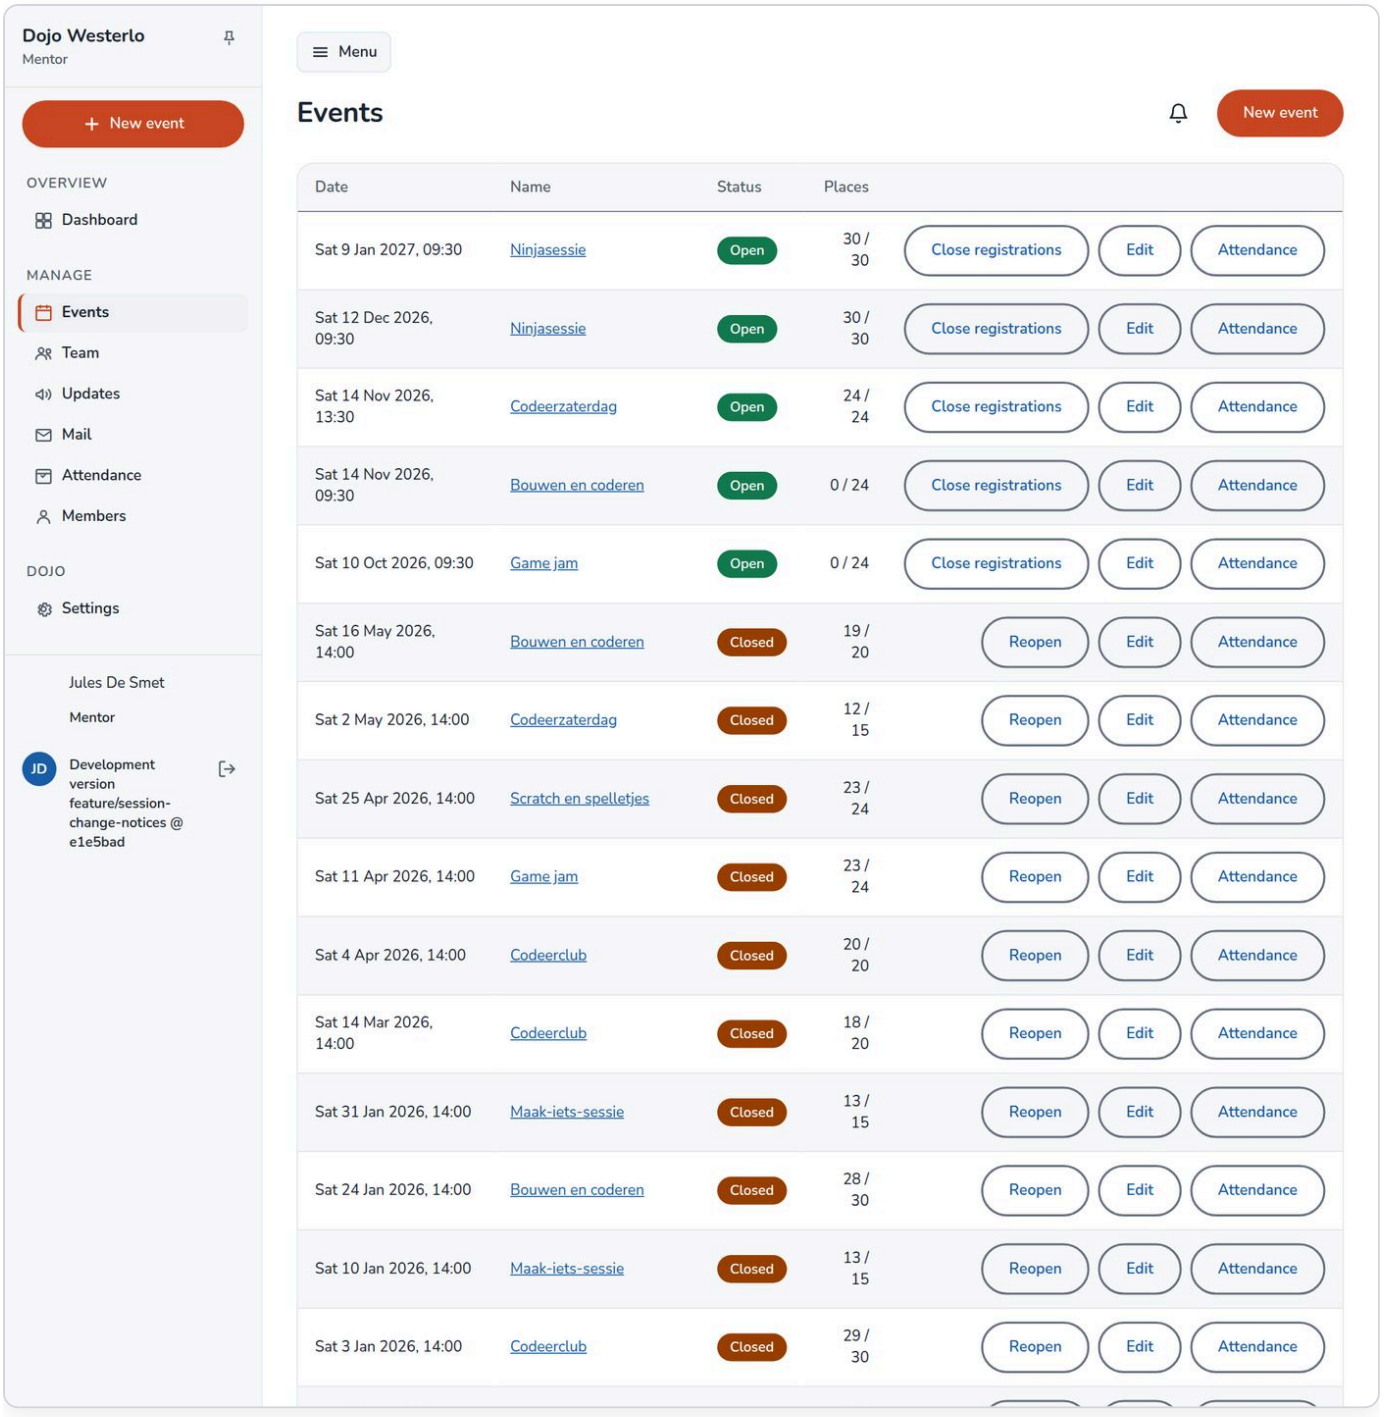

Step 9

The dojo's sessions

Mentors see and manage the dojo's sessions: publish, close registrations, reopen.

`/dojos/51/events/`

Step 9 The dojo's sessions (continued)

Step 10

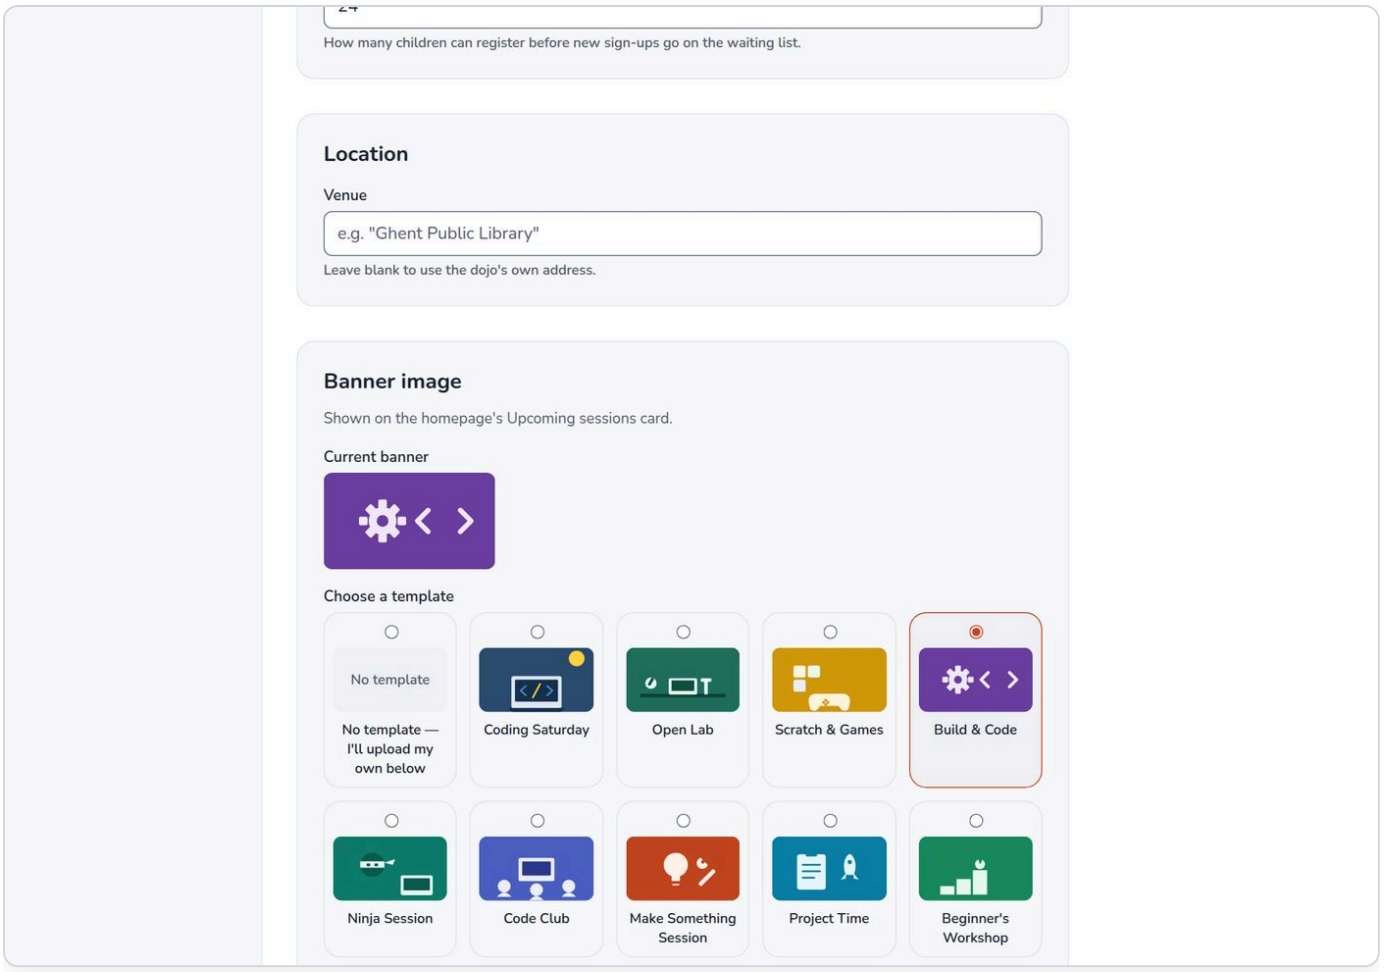

One session

The session's details, status, team and pathways, edited in place, plus a link to take attendance. The Sign-up questions card holds up to five yes/no questions families answer per child (here: do they bring their own laptop), with the answers so far. Mail the families tells the families with a place or on the waiting list about a change.

`/dojos/51/events/77/`

Step 10 One session (continued)

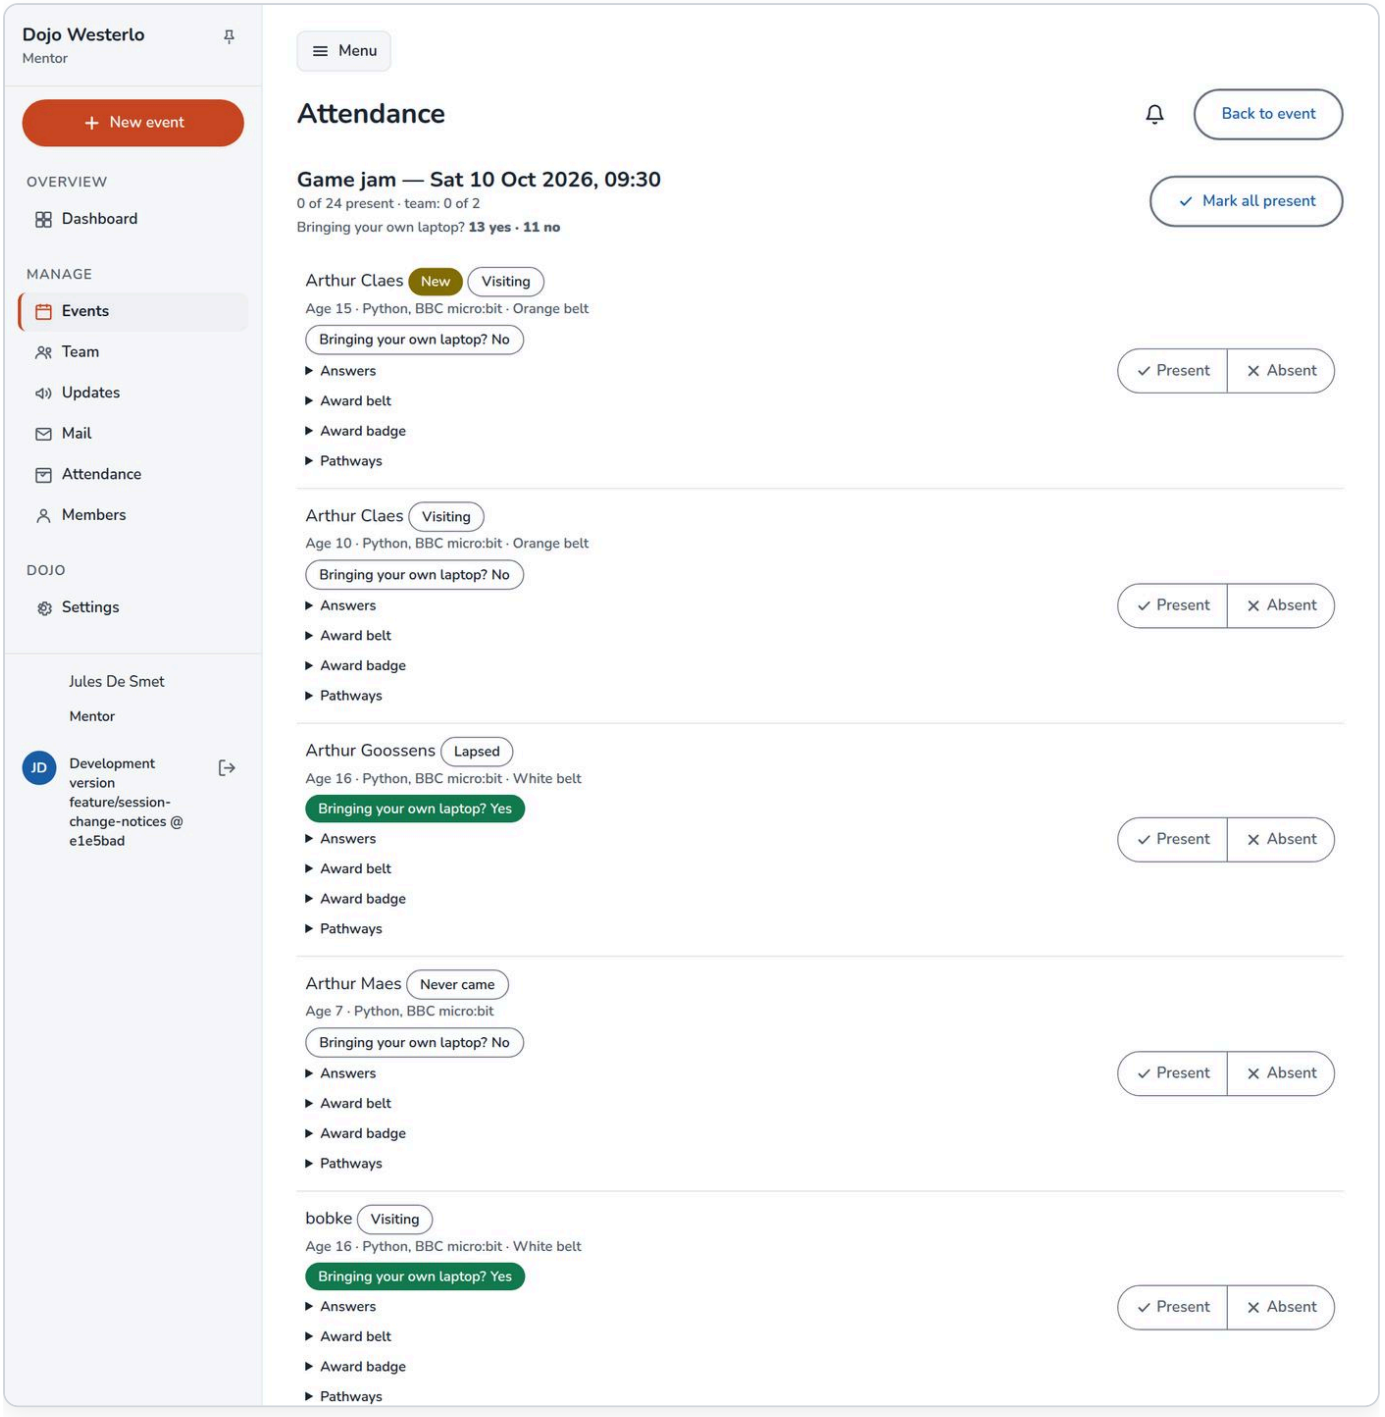

Step 11

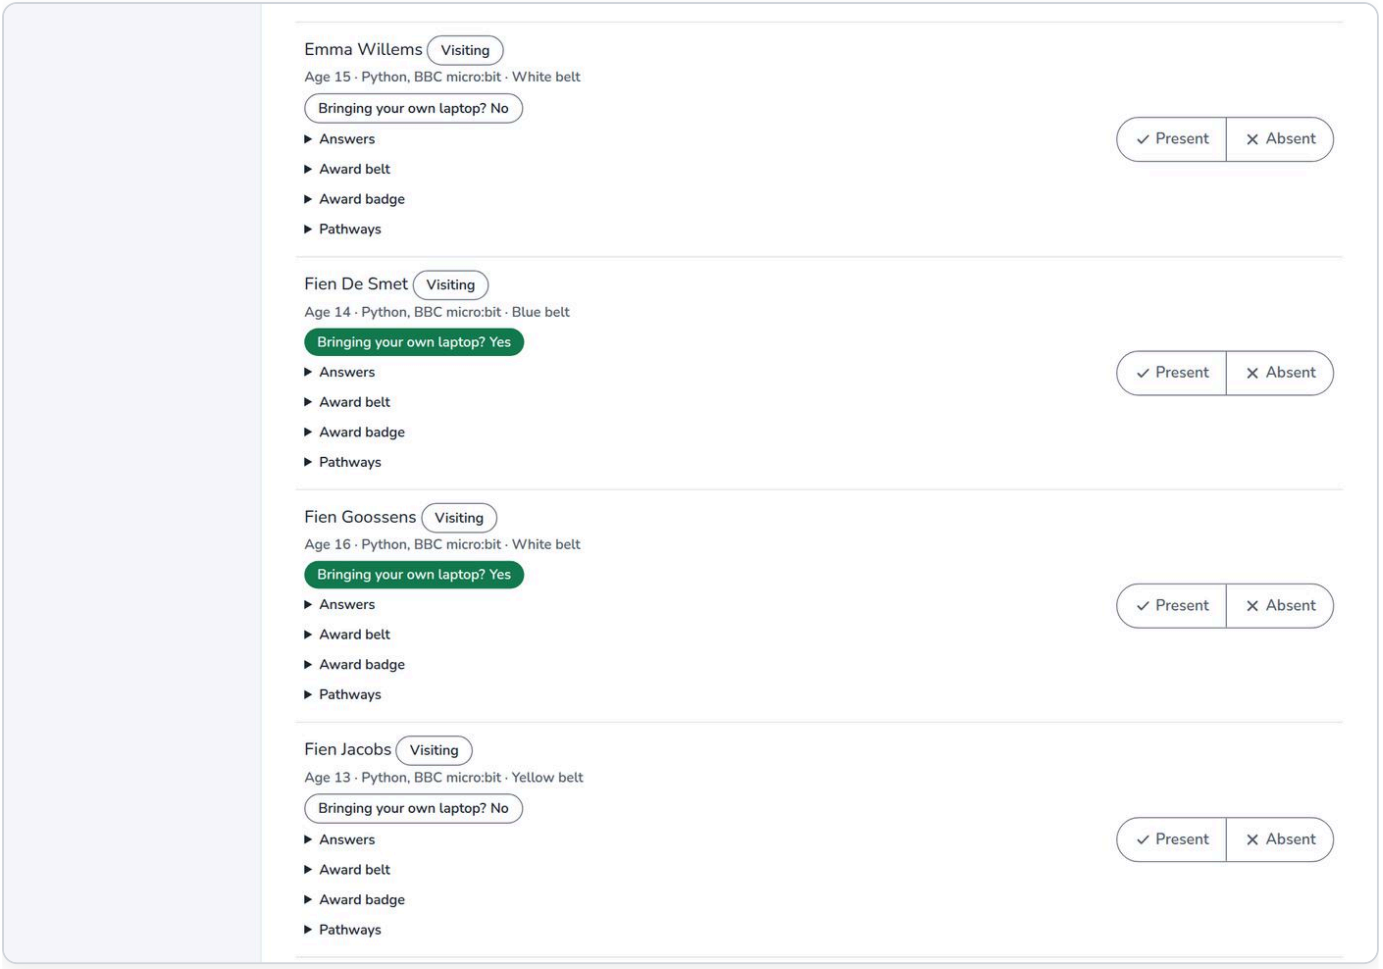

Taking attendance at the door

On the day, the mentor marks each child present or absent (htmx, no page reload). Each row shows the child's belt, engagement stage, the family's answers to the sign-up questions (counted at the top: how many laptops to bring; the team corrects one under Answers) and a 'Visiting' label for children from another dojo; the session team is listed too, for the insurance.

`/dojos/51/events/76/attendance/`

Step 12

Marked present

One click marks a child present and updates the 'N of M present' count. Milestone badges (wristbands) follow attendance automatically.

`/dojos/51/events/76/attendance/`

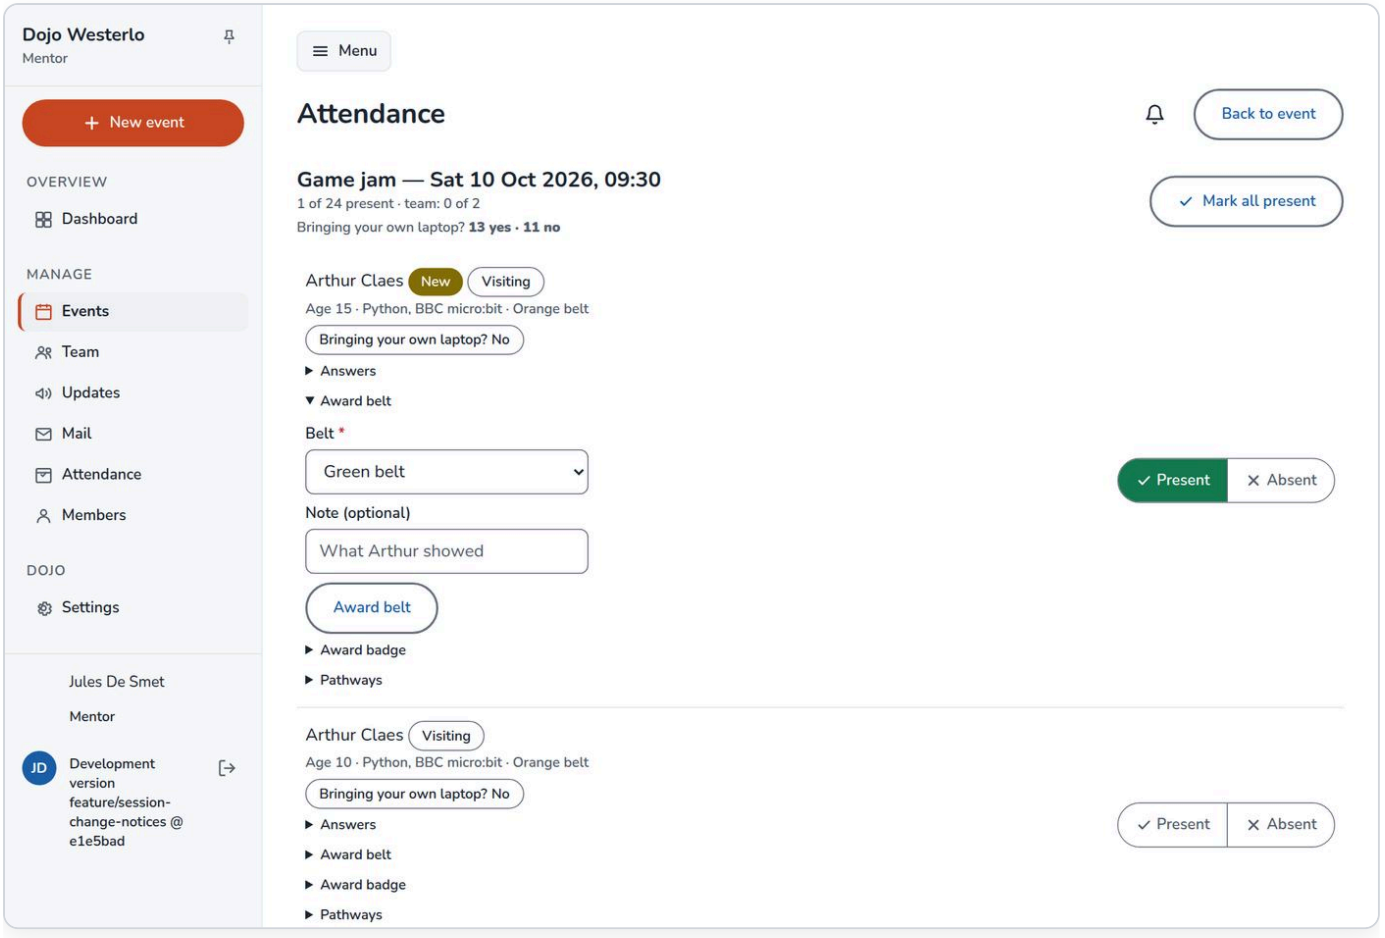

Step 13

Awarding a belt

Mentors award belts and one-off badges from the same list. The belt history is append-only and records who awarded it and as which role.

`/dojos/51/events/76/attendance/`

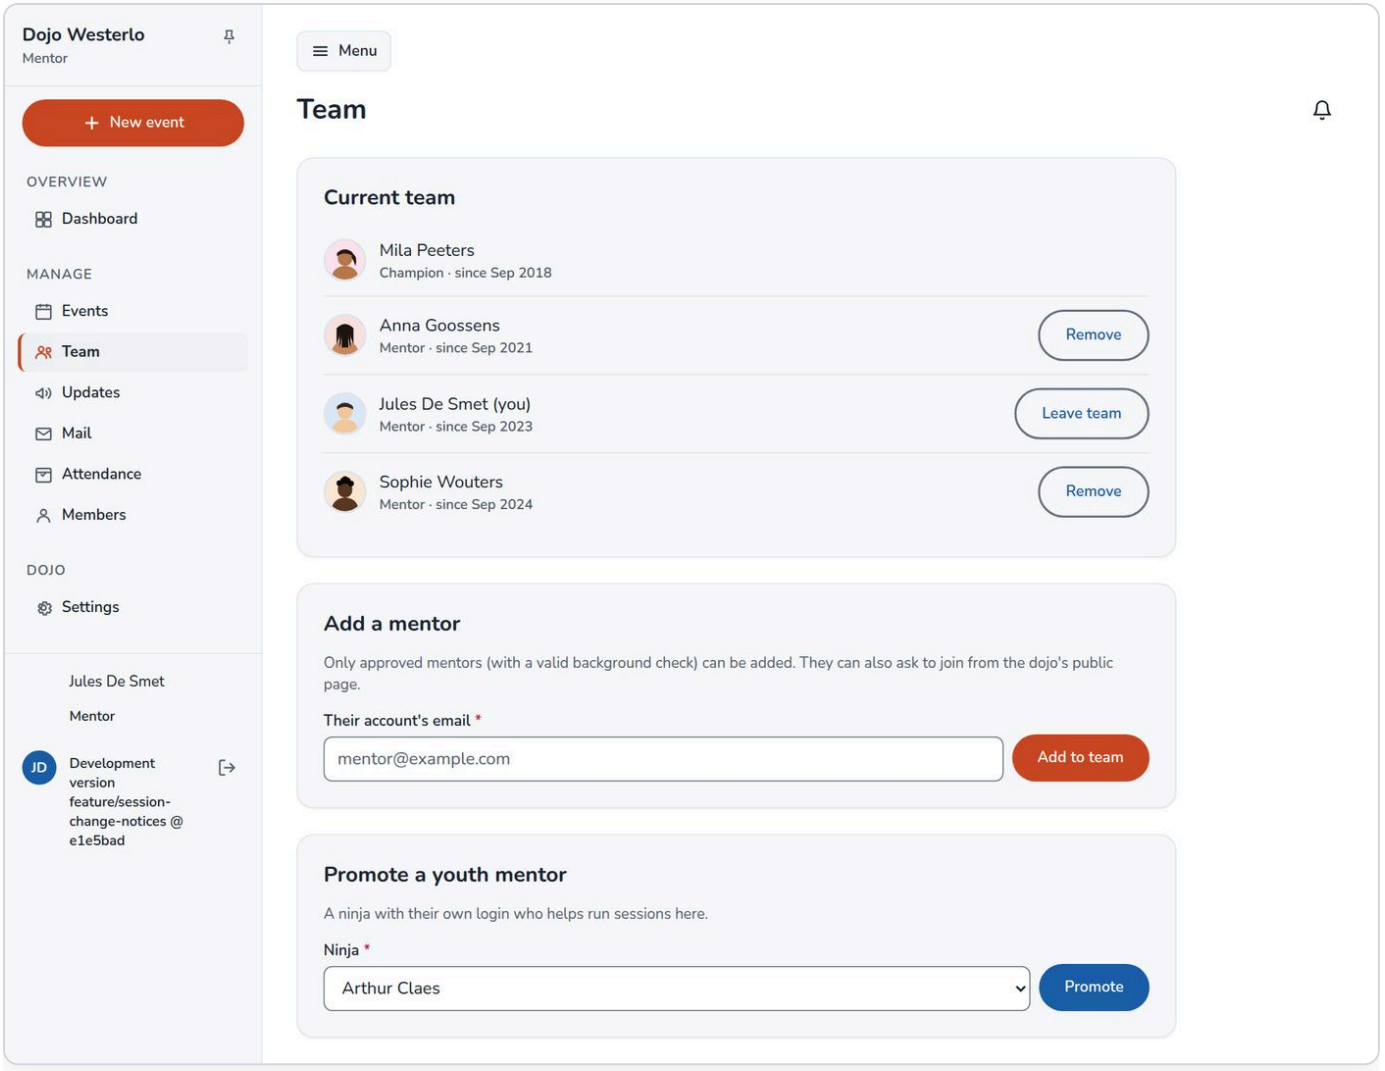

Step 14

The dojo's team

Every active mentor can accept join requests, add approved mentors and promote a ninja to youth mentor.

`/dojos/51/manage/team/`

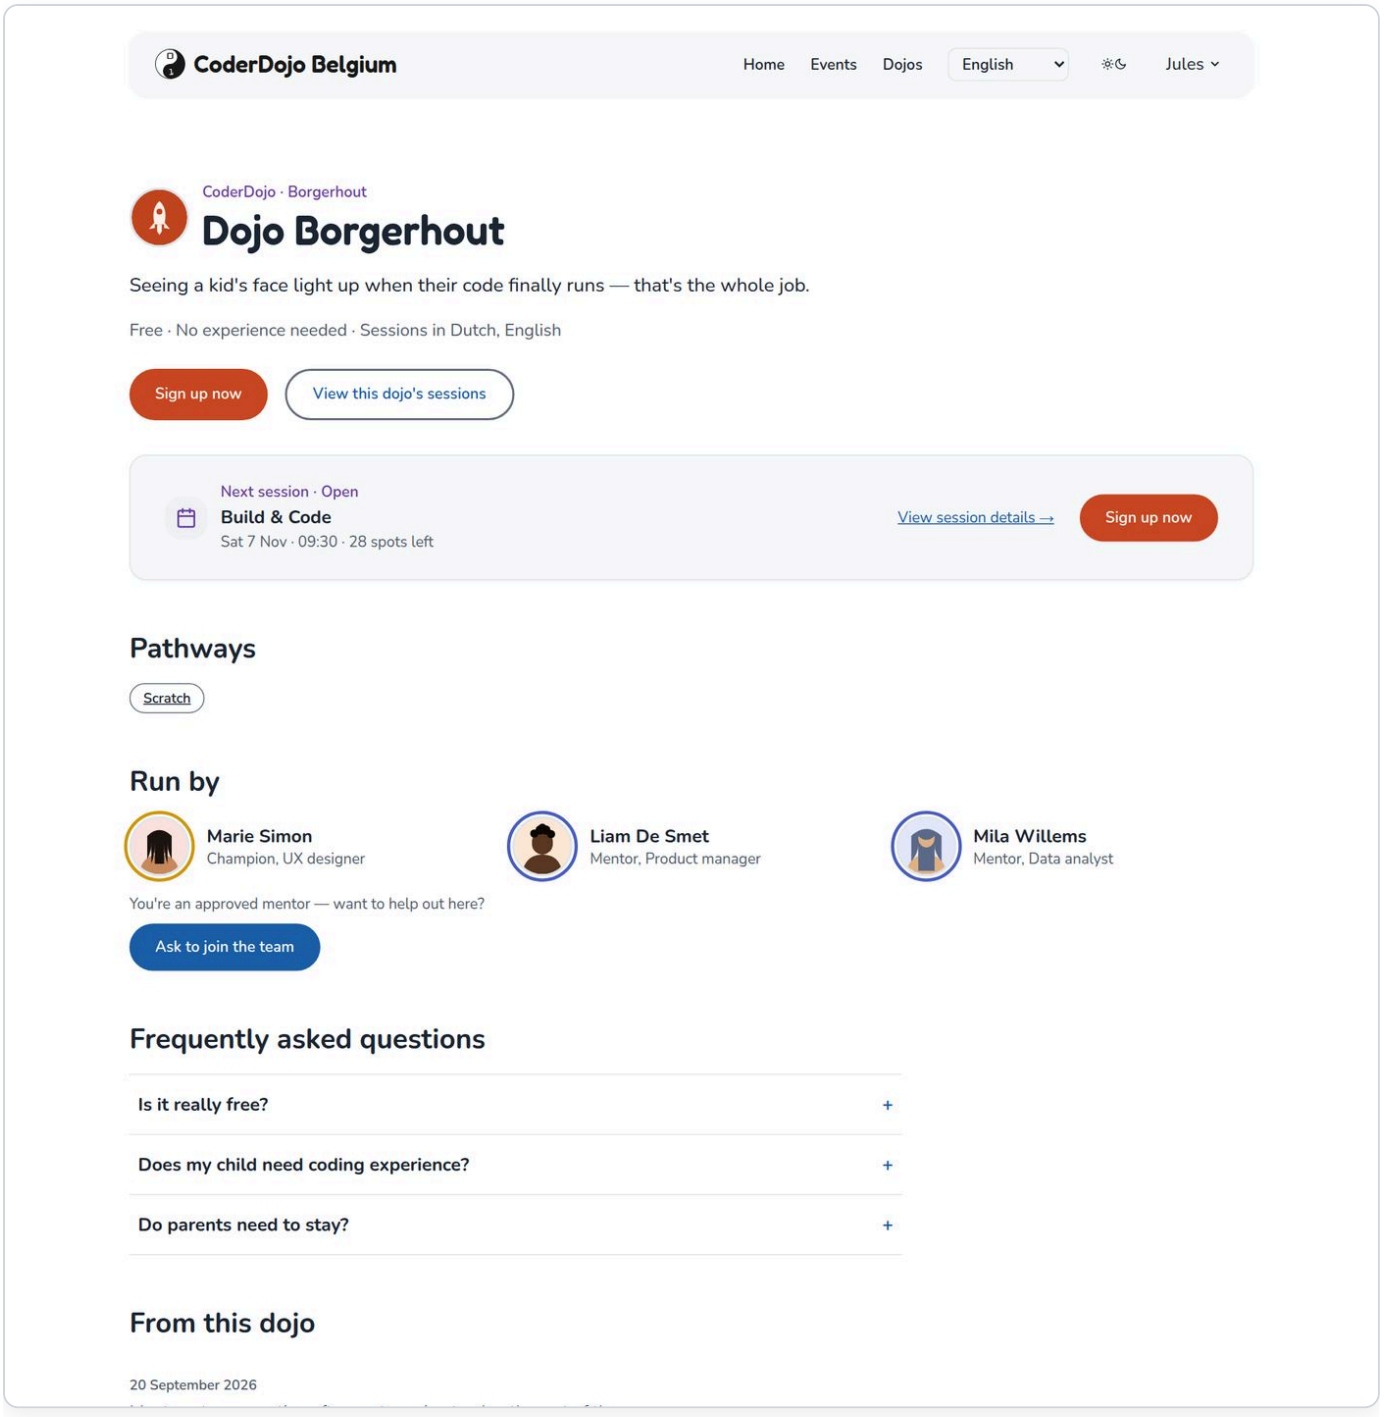

Step 15

Joining another dojo

An approved mentor can ask to join any dojo's team from its public page; its team accepts or declines.

`/dojos/3/`
